

NEW AFPA WORKPLACE DELEGATES

24th July 2007 – IMMEDIATE DISTRIBUTION

NEW AFPA WORKPLACE DELEGATES FOR SYDNEY AVIATION

The Australian Federal Police Association (AFPA) is happy to announce that two members have been elected unopposed as AFPA workplace delegates for AFPA Aviation members at Sydney Airport.

If you have any workplace issues, please contact either:

Oleg Briouzguine oleg.briouzguine@afp.gov.au

Or,

Shane Norman shane.norman@afp.gov.au

The Australian Federal Police Association is the sole respondent to the AFP Collective Agreement (CA) 2007 – 2011. The AFPA offers members full industrial coverage such as CA negotiations, collective workplace disputes and individual issues. The AFPA also offer members legal coverage for matters arising out of their employment. This includes issues of integrity and professional standards, as the AFP has the strongest code of conduct of any law enforcement agency in the country.

Other benefits of membership include, $100,000 non-discretionary life insurance policy, $10,000 group trauma insurance, member discounts with Manchester Unity's AUSPOL health fund and Members Equity's Home loans.

The AFPA website has information on all services provided as well as links to past bulletins detailing new CA conditions, AFPA journals and access to the members zone.

www.afpa.org.au

If you have any questions about the AFPA and the services provided, please either talk to your workplace delegates, or contact the AFPA National Office

afpa.office@afpa.org.au